

A Conference on Sigmund Freud and 20th Century Culture

Friday, December 3 – Saturday, December 4, 2010

Friday, December 3, 2010 – 219 Burr Hall

6:00-8:00pm Film Screening of John Huston's Freud (1962)

8:00-9:00pm Conversation between Susannah York and Michael Wood

9:00pm Dinner at Mediterra

Saturday, December 4, 2010 – 28 McCosh Hall

8:30-9:00am Breakfast

9:00am-12:00pm Panel I: Freud and Culture (Moderator: Diana Fuss)

Michael Wood Freud's Guesswork

Brigid Doherty The Poet and Hypnosis. Or, Freudian Phantasy and the Audience as Medium in Rilke's Rodin Lecture

Robert Tobin *90 From Time Travel to Detective Fiction: Freud in Contemporary US American Literature

12:00-1:00pm Lunch

1:00-5:00pm Panel II: Freud at Large in the World (Moderator: Rubén Gallo)

John Forrester Freud, English Psychoanalysis and Twentieth Century Culture

Max Hernández Some Thoughts about Discourse, Power and Democracy

Gohar Homayounpour Doing Psychoanalysis in Tehran

Néstor Braunstein Freud, Mexican Culture and its Discontents

5:00-5:15pm Break

5:15 – 6:45pm Keynote Speech by Sander Gilman

Old Wine in New Bottles; New Wine in Old Bottles? Nineteenth-century Electrotherapy, Psychoanalysis, and the Newest Approaches to the Treatment of Mental Illness in American Medical Culture

8:00pm Dinner at Mediterra