

DOING PSYCHOANALYSIS IN TEHRAN

The Program Committee of the National Psychological Association for Psychoanalysis presents

Doing Psychoanalysis in Tehran

Gohar Homayounpour, PsyD.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5, 6:00 pm
NPAP Library, 40 W 13 Street

Gohar Homayounpour was born in Paris, educated in Canada and at Boston Graduate School of Psychoanalysis. Several years ago she moved to Tehran, where she presently teaches at Shahid Beheshti University, Department of Psychology. She is a Training and Supervising Analyst, Faculty, at the Tehran Psychoanalytic Institute.

Dr. Homayounpour's research interests are language and psychoanalysis, the psychic function of fashion, and psychoanalysis and the arts. In this presentation, she will address the question of how can psychoanalysis be practiced in the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Moderator: Catherine Silver, Ph.D., Faculty, NPAP

Light fare will be served after the talk, free and open to the public.

NPAP Program Committee: Isolde Keilhofer (NPAP Members-in-Training Organization), Jane Kupersmidt, Evan Malater, Alan Roland, Catherine Silver, Stefanie Teitelbaum, and Aleksandra Wagner, Chair.

Persian (Farsi) translation of Freud's The Interpretation of Dreams.

